

Call Ya Bluff

Ludacris

Yeah

Anything you wanna do I'm ready to do it, my nigga, just say so

Don't say it on the record with your chest

Leave the booth and then go lay low

Hiding behind your security detail, actin' like a female

I done sold over 20 million records

I could really give a fuck about retail

Now back to basics

Back to Adidas with the fat laces

Back to the Ac' where I'm riding to the track in the track

Get it straight, nigga, no chasers

Age ain't nothing but a number

Luda rapping like he just turned 24

Any rapper wanna forget who I am

Every now and then I see I gotta let em know

Yo, must I remind you

You rap like something behind you

Got paid, but your heart pump Kool Aid

Cove Girl make up should have signed you

But it's never too late

15 years, nigga, never too great

4 years off getting Hollywood checks

But you niggas want beef and you looking like steak

I see that liquor got you loose

When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth

I'll make you niggas lose a tooth

When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth

Fuck y'all niggas, I'm the truth

When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth

Now I'm like, fuck calling a truce

When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth

Hol' up, never fuck with a nigga

who got some kids

Cause when you talk about me, then you talk about them

Then I gotta come where you live

You takin' food out they mouth, now I gotta put a fist in yours

I don't play about my hustle, a nigga got all these acres

All my neighbors think I'm flipping them birds

Naw, but I be flipping these words

Anything you hear me saying I could back up

And you talk so tough on the mic

But whenever you in sight, nigga, something don't add up

Put your money where your mouth is

Wait, put a gat where your blouse is
You think it's funny cause it's sunny where your house is Bitch, I'll put my muddy ass boots where your couch is (Fuck yo couch)
I live this shit, you know you do this just for show, nigga
You act as if Ludacris just came and took your ho, nigga
You's a ho, nigga, yeah I said it twice
Let this be warning number two, motherfucker go and roll the dice
I see that liquor got you loose
When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth
I'll make you niggas lose a tooth
When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth
Fuck y'all niggas, I'm the truth
When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth
Now I'm like, fuck calling a truce
When you see me, nigga, say it like you said it in the booth
