

Why's It Feel So Long

Keith Urban

I just kissed you goodbye a half an hour ago
I know you're drivin' to the airport
But I just gotta pick up the phone and hear you one more time
sayin' my name
I must be goin' out of my mind. Why's it feel so long
Since you've been gone
Why's it feel so long Time keeps dragging on
Til you get back home
Why's it feel so long
Baby now...
Cause I miss you babe I've never loved anyone like I love you
So when you're not around
I must confess I lose myself
And I don't know who or where I am
I might be crazy
Crazy about being your man Why's it feel so long
Since you've been gone
Why's it feel so long
I don't know why
Time keeps dragging on
Til you get back home
Why's it feel so long
When I finally see you
I know it'll be like you never left at all
But that's no consolation,
Tonight I sit waitin' and prayin'
That maybe you'll call
Call me
Call me baby...
Tell me now Why's it feel so long
Since you've been gone
Why's it feel so long
I don't know why
Time keeps dragging on
Til you get back home
Why's it feel so long Why's it feel so long
Since you've been gone
Why's it feel so long
I don't know why
Time just crawls along
Til you get back home

Why's it feel so long I look in my watch
I Stare at the clock
They don't move
I don't either
I'm just frozen on the couch
Oh the seconds feel like hours
And an hour's like a day
It's the twilight zone in this home
When you go away
Please don't go away...
