

Pendulum

Guided By Voices

Come on over tonight
We'll put on some Cat Butt and do it up right
No need to get all caught up
In society's stipulations
You're a member of the freak generation
They're gonna burn, but you'll have duration
When the pendulum swings and cuts
When the big door swings open and shuts
Yeah, we'll be middle-aged children, but so what?
And I haven't changed so drastically
They can talk so sarcastically
They'll bust up, but we'll bust in
Get knocked down but up again
When the pendulum swings and cuts
When the big door swings open and shuts
Oh, we'll be swollen and infected, but so what?
When the pendulum swings and cuts
When the big door swings open and shuts
Yeah, we'll be middle-aged children, but so what?
Oh, we'll be swollen and infected, but so what?
