

This Year's Girl

Elvis Costello & The Attractions

See her picture in a thousand places
'Cause she's this year's girl
You think, you all own little pieces
 Of this year's girl
 Forget your fancy manners
 Forget your English grammar
'Cause you don't really give a damn
 About this year's girl
Still you're hoping that she's well spoken
 'Cause she's this year's girl
You want her broken with her mouth wide open
 'Cause she's this year's girl
 Never knowing, it's a real attraction
 All these promises of satisfaction
 While she's being bored to distraction
 Being this year's girl
 Time's runnin' out
 She's not happy with the cost
 There'd be no doubt
Only she's forgotten much more than she's lost
 A bright spark might corner the market
 In this year's girl
You see yourself rolling on the carpet
 With this year's girl
 Those disco synthesizers
 And those daily tranquilizers
 Those body building prizes
 Those bedroom alibis
All this but no surprises for this year's girl
 All this but no surprises for this year's girl
All this but no surprises for this year's girl, yeah
