A Christmas to Remember

Dolly Parton & Kenny Rogers

You've made this a Christmas to remember
Springtime feelin's in the middle of December
Strangers meet and they willingly surrender
Oh! What a Christmas to remember. Almost went to Aspen but something told me no

Oh! What a Christmas to remember. Almost went to Aspen but something told me no I considered Mammoth but there wasn't enough snow

And I even thought of Gatlinburg but that seemed so far to go

So I headed up to Tahoe for a Christmas on the slopes. And I had fantasized about Christmas in this way

Curled up by a fireplace in a Tahoe ski chalet
With a fast talking lover and some slow burning wood
But even in my wildest dreams it never got this good. And you've made this a Christmas to remember

Springtime feelin's in the middle of December Change the radio and I'll turn the lights down dimmer

Oh, oh, what a Christmas to remember.

Strangers when we met, lovers as we leave

Christmas to remember, too good to believe

Don't know how or when, but I know we'll meet again

We'll come blowin' back to somewhere like some wild restless winter's wind. You've made this

a Christmas to remember

Springtime feelin's in the middle of December

Neath the mistletoe you kissed me warm and tender

Oh! What a Christmas to remember. We loved and laughed and played and joked

Sang Christmas songs and talked to folks

Sleighed the fields and skied the slopes then to the lodge for dinner

But now it's time for us to go as our hearts melt like chimney snow

There's just one thing I want to know san we do this next winter.Oh, oh, what a Christmas to remember

You've made this a Christmas to remember Springtime feelin's in the middle of December Though the fire is hot, we'll just have to let it simmer.

Oh, oh, what a Christmas to remember

You've made this a Christmas to remember

Springtime feelin's in the middle of December

Though it's cold outside we'll just stroke the burning embers.Oh, oh, what a Christmas to remember...
