Everybody Loves Eileen

Steelheart

Bring it on
YeahShe's got a fire burning in her eyes
Make you feel like a new born child
She can turn the cold lonely night into a rollercoaster ride
And she's givin' it all, givin' it all awayEverybody loves Eileen
She's a sweet little rock and roll machine
Just the sweetiest thing you ever seen
Everybody loves EileenOh yeah
She can tell a joke and make you cry
Take your heart a thousand miles high
Sing love a lullaby like an angel of the night
She's so close and she's so far awayEverybody loves Eileen
She's a sweet little rock and roll machine
Just the sweetiest thing you ever seen
Everybody loves EileenOhh yeahI want her love
She drives me crazy
I need her love
I want to follow my ladyEverybody loves Eileen
She's a sweet little rock and roll machine
Just the sweetiest thing you ever seen
Everybody loves Eileen
Everybody loves Eileen
She's a sweet little rock and roll machine
Just the sweetiest thing you ever seen
Everybody loves Eileen
