

Secondary

Brand New

And it comes down to you
Never and ever. Wrecked his day
Looks and flirts and midnight in your shortest skirts
Past the point of trying, I'm a dying breed
Thank her for reminding me of all the things I've done completely wrong
Stop these looks and letters
This isn't for the better
You put me down
It's for the worse
You're not my girl
Stop the circulation to my legs and break my bones
Dateless and late
I'm better by myself at home
Past the point of trying and I'm dying here
Secondary
She laughs at every word I know came out completely wrong
Stop these looks and letters
This isn't for the better
You put me down
It's for the worse
You're not my girl
Stop these looks and letters
This isn't for the better
You put me down
It's for the worse
You're not my girl
And it's my last semester
And brothers always come first
It's my last semester (it's my last semester)
At least until next winter (at least until next winter)
But I'm sure that I'll be over this by then
Past the point of trying, I'm a dying breed
Thank her for reminding me of all the things I've done completely wrong
Stop these looks and letters
This isn't for the better
You put me down
It's for the worse
You're not my girl
Stop these looks and letters
This isn't for the better
You put me down
It's for the worse
You're not my girl
Better scenes... I wish you'd seen me
Better off if I just let it be Better pretend it don't matter
Better off if I could have her
Better days since the day I met her

I better hope she got my letters
Better off in two year stretches Stop these looks and letters
You're not my girl
