

Chasing Shadows

Anoushka Shankar

"Love" wasn't left unsaid,
"thank you" that was left unsaid."I know you" maybe left unsaid?
I don't know what was said.My heart, my heart speaks to you,
You heart knows it was spoken true.In body, blood and soul, I came,
I walked in love and not in shame.Hearts can speak when lips can't,
there was more, I lost my chance.
Were there things I should have done?
It's too late, now that you're gone."Love" wasn't left unsaid,
"thank you" that left unsaid."I see you" maybe left unsaid?
I don't know what was said.My heart, my heart speaks to you,
You heart know it has spoken true.
Fortune smiled on me, oh my,
got the chance to say goodbye.In your eyes, it was love I read,
there wasn't much we left unsaid.
