

Something To You

American Young

I called to find out where we are, if we're close or far apart
Or if there's any movement either way
Am I the one that makes you smile?
Still the number on your dial?
Or just a record you don't want to play? So here's my heart, go on and take it
Do your best not to break it
There's a chance we don't make it
But there's a chance we do and
I'll make you proud when I can
And when I can't, take my hand
Cuz one is only one, and it takes two Can't you see I only want to be something that means something to you? Promise me you won't forget the way you fell when we first met
And how close the stars seem in the sky
Some burned out and some just fell
Some were made for someone else
But we're still here and there's a reason why So here's my heart, go on and take it
Do your best not to break it
There's a chance we don't make it
But there's a chance we do and
I'll make you proud when I can
And when I can't, take my hand
Cuz one is only one, and it takes two Can't you see I only want to be something that means something to you? And i'll stay if you stay
And even if you go
Cuz i'm on land, just so you know
So here's my heart, go on and take it
Do your best not to break it
There's a chance we don't make it
But there's a chance we do and
I'll make you proud when I can
And when I can't, take my hand
Cuz one is only one, and it takes two Can't you see I only want to be something that means something to you? Can't you see I only want to be something that means something to you?
