

Say You Will

Ben Harper & The Innocent Criminals

Baby, say it's all right if it takes all night
We won't have to be alone if you say you will
Darling, won't you say you will?
Darling, won't you say that you will? Like Marie Antoinette said to Louis XVI,
"Man, I think we're going down.
Our chances are slim and none
And I'm afraid slim just left town." Say you will
Darling, won't you say you will?
Darling, won't you say you will?
Darling, won't you say you will?
Darling, won't you say you will?
Darling, won't you say that you will?
Now you've had me hanging all on your line
But I know all too well, love ain't nothing but a worried mind
Now say you will (Say you will) Darling, won't you say you will? (Say you will)
Oh won't you say that you will? (Say you will)
Darling, won't you say you will? (Say you will)
Oh won't you say you will? (Say you will)
Oh, say it, say it, say it, say it, say it, say you will (Say it)
Won't you say you will? (Say it)
Oh, say you will (Say it)
Oh, say you will (Say it)
Say it, say you will Well I love you like a candle loves a flame
Like a crying man that has no shame
When you hit me, I feel no pain
Like the last days that remain, say you will (Say you will)
Darling, won't you say that you will? (Say you will)
Darling, won't you say that you will? (Say you will)
Darling, won't you say that you will? (Say you will)
Oh say you will (Say you will)
Darling, won't you say that you will (Say you will)
Oh, say you will (Say you will)
Say you will (Say you will)
Say you will (Say you will)
Oh tell me, tell me that you will (Say you will)
Please say you will (Say you will)
Oh, I know, I know, I know you will (Say you will)
