

Steal My Thunder

Keith Urban

Pleaser, girl you love to be a pleaser
But take a bow, take it now
'Cause your heart's so good
You could turn a sinner into a
Believer
And I want the world to see ya'
'Cause you're the show everywhere we go
I'll be your front row fan in the bleachers In every single room
It's all eyes on you
But baby, I don't mind
Chorus:
You can steal my thunder anytime
I love the way you glow
In the camera lights
On a red carpet roll
So, go ahead and make a scene
Like it's goin' out of style
'Cause if it's up to me
You can steal my thunder anytime
Anytime
Anytime
Anytime
You can steal my thunder
Better, no it don't get it any better
Than watching you shine like the moon
Most any other guy might try to dim your light
But baby, when I'm with ya'
I'll be the frame around your picture
One step behind
No, I don't mind Repeat Chorus Anytime
In every single room
It's all eyes on you
But baby I don't mind
You can steal my thunder anytime
I love the way you glow
In the camera lights
On a red carpet roll
So, go ahead and make a scene
Like it's goin' out of style
'Cause if it's up to me
You can steal my thunder anytime
Anytime

Anytime
Anytime
You can steal my thunder anytime
Anytime
Anytime
Anytime
