[Intro: blackbear]

Oh, yeah

Yeah[Verse 1: blackbear]

Seein' you last week, thought that we were cool

You was with some bitches I never knew, I never met

You was actin' all brand new

How you gonna pay for your car and your crib with

YouTube checks and guest list

I'm friends with everybody you been havin' sex with[Chorus: blackbear]

If it ain't me, if it ain't me

Who's gon' turn you to a wife from the trap queen?

If it ain't me, if it ain't me

Who's gon' change your life, who's gonna lay the pipe exactly how you like?

Who's gon' make it right, who's gon' change your life?

Who's gon' make you top priority?

[Verse 2: Ne-Yo]

Shawty's such a pretty little thug

Smile like sunshine but let a chick talk slick just one time (she snappin')

She accustomed to the trappin'

She don't let it happen, she make it happen

Ballplayers and the D-boys and make it rappin'

Be the type that should be attracted

So fancy but so much on the outside that nobody can see

How smart you are, how funny

Loyal and about your money

Well I can, baby (I can baby)

You know you're bad, you could have any man, baby

But I got a big heart, good sex

Sims in the bank and a motherfuckin' plan baby

You gonna hit me up?

[Chorus: Ne-Yo]

If it ain't me, if it ain't me, babe

Who's gonna take you to a wife from the trap queen?

Said if it ain't me babe, if it ain't me

Who gon' change your life, who's gonna lay the pipe just the way you like?

Say who gon' make it right, change your life?

Make you top priority?

Ayy, top priority

Make you top priority
