

Sorrows

Bryson Tiller

Oh yeah, ayy, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Baby, yeah, yeahOoh, ooh, ooh, oohWhen I'm lonely, baby
It's like my friends don't know me
Girl you used to be my homie (my homie)
Left me with a dream she sold me (she sold me)
Even the dreams get lonely
Left me here, three in the mornin'
Questionin' all the things you told me (told me)
Ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy
You got lost me in lil' moment
Baby if you need it, show it then
If you ?ver need it or want it, I got you, you know this
And, if you ever hom? alone and need a little compagny, I'll sleep right over
Baby I'll be right over
Invite me right over, over, over
I said I know, we ain't on the same page no more
And that's a shame that we ain't, we used to be so close
And yes I'm down and I'm drownin' in my sorrows, babe (baby, yeah)
Yeah, yeah
You don't miss me, babe
I'm already tryna convince me, babe
Always been somebody else since me, babe
Think I might do the same, don't tempt me, baby
Hit the party and get friendly
Honestly no I don't got it, in me
It's no fun when you're not here with me
It's no wonder you're not here, baby, yeah
Yet you tell me there's no way
Yes, you tell me there's no way, way, way (yeah, yeah)
She's like, "How you figure girl?"
I seen you round here, with him
Trust me, I heard all about him
If I don't, tell me where you found me
He don't get around you
No, I won't allow it (no, no)
Guess it's over now, if you think I don't know by now
Can we slow it down and sort it out, oh, ohYou ain't never lost me, lil' mama
Baby if you need it, show it then
If you ever need it or want it, I got you, you know this
And, if you ever home alone and need a little company, I'll sleep right over
Baby I'll be right, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Seen what I said right?
    Heard what I said right?
    I'm a boss and you see it, right?
    You took a loss and you see it, right?
    We could stop, we could rewind
    Would you call in the meantime?
    Ain't no problem, we'll be fine
    Would you come with me tonight?
        All the stories you rewrite
        That's a lie, what it seems like
    You know you talkin' to me, right?
    You could tell me anything, right?
    Yeah, you always got a green light
Yeah, you always, always, always, always, always
