

Alter Ego

KALEO

I've got two strong legs
Whoa, just like my father said, yeah
On your feet, little man Now go out and take what you can Oh, yeah
You've got the wind in your back
Now don't you go on and crack, boy
Whoa, yeah, whoa, yeah
Woo, ooh-ooh I've got leverage
Whoa, but babe when you touch me there
Oh, I feel I'm 'bout to break, yeah
Oh, don't leave me this way, don't leave me here
Oh, yeah
You feel it rush to your head
This is the time to attack
There's nothin' holdin' you back
Now, go ahead So, lately I'm not the same, oh no
But I might just be the one
So, baby, don't hurt yourself, oh no
Said, I might just be
I might just be the one
And lately I'm not the same, oh
But I might just be the one
So, baby, don't hurt yourself, oh no
Said, I might just be
I might just be the one
Who you really think you're fooling there?
Whoa, someone's out to get you, yeah
Whoa, turning back around for you
Whoa, they're callin' me back so I better go, now
Whoa, yeah You feel it rush to your head
This is the time to attack
You've got to wind in your back
Now, go ahead Lately I'm not the same
I might just be the one
So, baby, don't hurt yourself
Said, I might, I, I might just be the one
Now, lately I'm not the same, no
Ooh, I might just be the one, yeah-yeah
Oh, baby, don't hurt yourself, no
See, I might just be, come on, let's go Woah, yeah
Woo, ride along, babe
Woo, ooh
Aaaah

Woo, ooh-ooh
Woo
Oh, yeah-yeah
