Almost

Bowling for Soup

I almost got drunk at school at 14 Where I almost made out with the homecoming queen Who almost went on to be Miss Texas But lost to a slut with much bigger breasts I almost dropped out to move to L.A. Where I was almost famous for almost a day And I almost had you But I guess that doesn't cut it Almost loved you I almost wished you would loved me too I almost held up a grocery store Where I almost did five years and then seven more Cuz I almost got popped for a fight, with a thug Because he almost made off a bunch of the drugs That I almost got hooked on 'cause you ran away And I wish I would had the nerve to ask you to stay And I almost had you But I guess that doesn't cut it Almost had you And I didn't even know it You kept me guessin' And now I'm destined To spend my time missin' youI almost wish you would aloved me tooHere I go thinkin' 'bout all the things I coulda doneI'm gonna need a forklift 'cause all the baggage weighs a ton (Baggage weighs a ton) I know we had our problems, I can't remember one I almost forgot to say something else And if I can't fit it in I'll keep it all to myself I almost wrote a song about you today But I tore it all up and then I threw it away And I almost had you But I guess that doesn't cut it Almost had you And I didn't even know it You kept me guessin' And now I'm destined To spend my time missin' youAnd I almost had you (Almost had you) Almost had you I almost wished you would loved me too (Wished you would aloved me too)
