Troubadour

George Strait

I still feel 25, most of the time. I still raise a little cain with the boys. Honky tonks and pretty women. Lord I'm still right there with them. Singing above the crowd and the noise. (Chorus) Sometimes I feel like Jesse James, Still trying to make a name. Knowing nothing's gonna change what I am. I was a young troubadour, when I rode in on a song. and I'll be an old troubadour, when I'm gone. Well, The truth about a mirror, It's that a damned old mirror, Don't really tell the whole truth. It don't show what's deep inside, or read between the lines, it's really no reflection of my youth. (Repeat Chorus)I was a young troubadour, when I rode in on a song. I'll be an old troubadour, when I'm gone. I'll be an old troubadour, when I'm gone.
