

Who's Gonna Take The Garbage Out

Loretta Lynn & Ernest Tubb

I take too much abuse to me that's all I ever get Yeah callin' a man like you a husband is just like callin' old wild cat a pet You'd better stop your runnin' around say nothin' stop movin' on
But who's gonna take your garbage out when I've packed my bags and gone
Each day you walk off over me can't you take another out
If you start actin' like married man maybe we could find the way to work things out
You'll find your key won't fit the lock if you keep on a keepin' on
But who's gonna take your garbage out when I've packed my bags and gone
I know you think I'm runnin' round and that's why you're so peaked
That's another lie of that same old stuff but I hope you don't expect me to believe
Though after night but don't come back cause you just love the home
But who's gonna take your garbage out when I've packed my bags and gone I know you think
I'm runnin' round and that's why you're so peaked
That's another lie of that same old stuff but I hope you don't expect me to believe go out tonight but don't come back cos you just lost the home
Honey who's gonna take your garbage out when I've packed my bags and gone
Honey who's gonna take your garbage out when I've packed my bags and gone
You're gonna miss me honey gal
Ah you're kiddin'
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>