

Boys Don't Cry

Plumb

You sit there on the couch
Sipping your scotch and ice
You turn the T.V on,
And tune me out again
So what would you say to me
If you could talk to me
You could ask anything
I wouldn't lie But you're Ok with this damaging Awkwardness
I'll just keep playing it safe
And keep it inside
`cause boys don't cry
I used to hold your hand
So tight there was no question
But now even
When you're near
I've never felt so alone
So what would you say to me
If you could talk to me
You could ask anything
I wouldn't lie But you're
Ok with this damaging
Awkwardness
I'll just keep
Playing it safe and keep it inside
Boys don't cry, boys don't cry Yeah
Boys don't cry, boys don't cry Yeah
If you just stand beside me
I'll keep you in my life
Tell me how Much you Love me
And I'll be just fine
Don't be afraid of me
So what would you say to me
If you could talk to me
You could ask anything
I wouldn't lie but you're
Ok with this damaging
Awkwardness
I'll just keep playing it safe
And keep it inside
Boys don't cry, boys don't cry

Yeah, yeah
Yayayayayayaya
yayayaya
