

Stuck (feat. Tove Styrke)

Lost Kings

Just because I can't put my finger on the problem
Doesn't mean there ain't a problem
We're so quick to think history could just solve 'em
Don't you think we would've solved them by now? I gave you what you wanted
Moved East right after college
But nothing filled the space
I called you heavy-hearted
Moved West the end of August
So I could find a place But maybe I need ya
'Cause it's harder than I thought
Baby, I need ya
But you always want too much
Oh, fuck it, I need ya
And I really turned the knife
But I miss it when it's dark, aah
Aah, somewhere between love
Aah, got feelings I don't trust
Aah, right in between love
Aah, stuck I get so possessive when I see you happy
But I want you to be happy
I get so conflicted when I see you without me
Are you better off without me?
Don't you know, you gave me what I wanted
So quiet in the morning
Just you and I could fill the space
Lately I start to notice
I've been missing all the little moments
By now I thought I'd be okay
But maybe I need ya
'Cause it's harder than I thought
Baby, I need ya
But you always want too much
Oh, fuck it, I need ya
And I'm really trying tonight
But I miss it when it's dark, aah Aah, somewhere between love
Aah, got feelings I don't trust
Aah, right in between love
Aah, I'm stuck Stuck inside this feeling, baby
Stuck inside this love
Stuck inside a moment, baby
Can we give it up?
Stuck inside this feeling, baby

Stuck inside this love
Stuck inside a moment, baby
Can we give it up? Aah, somewhere between love
Aah, got feelings I don't trust
Aah, right in between love
Aah, stuck
