

ShipTrip

KYLE

Hey Kyle, oh yeah, it's me dude
I wanted to know if me and my pride could squeeze through See I don't socialize much but I need to Can't you see that my mood ring is see through?
I don't really get as much love as I need to
I don't really give enough hugs 'cause I need to, damn
Or give enough fucks as I need to, damn
Sounds a little rough, get the EQ fam
Wish every bad decision came with a preview fam
So I don't do shit I don't need to fam
I got a little brother I gotta feed two fam
I'm either doin' this or with my chick, yep
I've got this ship, let's take this trip
Into Japan, we've never been
I've seen you float, I know you'll swim
Let's play this game, we know who wins
(the ones who are truly in love)
(the ones who are truly in love)
Truly (love, love, love, love, love) And shit's gettin' bad now
All my tendencies are gettin' just like my dad now
Sittin' on the bench and now I'm finally up to bat now
Gotta get a hit or sit back down, back down
Momma moved to Vegas I just hope she comes back now
Only way I see my cousin Dame is through the glass
Try to tell that nigga jokes see a nigga laugh
Damn, guess I'm not funny like that
I been under pressure I can finally see the cracks
When I fall apart I know she right there with the tape
Save me
A lot of my loved ones save me
If you know a place babe take me
Take me, take me, take me, take me
I've got this ship, let's take this trip
Into Japan, we've never been
I've seen you float, I know you'll swim
Let's play this game, we know who wins
(the ones who are truly in love)
(the ones who are truly in love)
Truly (love, love, love, love, love)
I've got this ship, let's take this trip
Into Japan, we've never been That was beautiful dawg, it really was
But honestly, you gotta stop being so hard on yourself!

It's okay to not be okay!
It don't matter if you're SuperDuperKyle, or a stripper from Atlanta
Everybody got problems bro, everybody
