So Far Away

The Rocket Summer

Try until you finally say you're watching this whole town
You're making my heart bleed, it shows it by your frown
And I'm already sure that money you will listen and I will be the sameIt's time to wait for her
Choking on six silly ways
Made my seats hit the way
Now we feel there will be another day rideNow it's time
I've come to clear my mind
The same same old way back until you comeYou're so far away
You're so far away back from this Sunday
(So far away)
You're so far away you're so far behind don't see this Sunday
Through the days I'm wrecked cause I don't know myself
Through the days I'm wrecked cause I don't know myself
Through these moments I'll keep rocking to these lies
So from here we'll make another lie
To make you there to make you mineTime it kills me everyday just asking you to stay
Just trying to find my way, it happens everyday
I'm reaching to the stars, I'm reaching to the sky
My mind it fades awayI'm sick today for her
Choking on six stupid ways
Made my seats hit the way
Now we feel there will be another day rideNow it's time
I've come to clear my mind
The same same old way back until you come
You're so far away
You're so far away back from this Sunday
(So far away)
You're so far away you're so far behind don't see this SundayThrough the days I'm wrecked cause I don't know myself
Through the days I'm wrecked cause I don't know myself
Through these moments I'll keep rocking to these lies
So from here we'll make another lie
To make you there to make you mine
Alright
