People

AWOLNATION

Thank you For listening again Or for the first time Or for the last time We share this moment And I am grateful for this I was born to rage For my father's pain With my brother's style For my mother's reign We could use some hope We must learn to cope So be good with goodbyes So be good with goodbyes Alright nowPeople People Have you heard the good news There's people People They're running just like you Today I say It's all that matters for now For you And I Wooo So people People Make some good ol' love Well I lost my pride With this body of mine In another land I began to understand I got love for all your hate I got lost to find my way So be good with goodbyes So be good with goodbyesYeah Alright nowPeople People Have you heard the good news There's people People

They're running just like you

Today

I sayIt's all that matters for now

For you

And I

Wooo

So people

People

Make some good ol' loveMy knife is a dream

It's a beautiful world

She'll never leave

It's a beautiful world

Her body sits tight

When she's hitchin' a ride

Hey man I'm sorry

I'm not lookin' to fightWe were born to rage

We're the price of pain

We're a single voice

We're the second choice

We were born to ragePeople

People

Have you heard the good news

There's people

People

They're running just like you

Today

I say

It's all that matters for now

For you

And I

Wooo

So people

People

Make some good ol' loveOh na na na

Ho na na na

Ho na na na

Make some good ol' love

Oh na na na

Ho na na na

Ho na na na

Make some good ol' love

Oh na na na

Ho na na na

Ho na na na
