Stuck in My Ways (feat. 6lack)

Phora

Yeah, all this pressure been getting to me lately
I just feel like everything changed, lookYeah, stuck in my ways again
She said I pray for you
She said I love you, but I need to stay away from you, uhStuck in my ways again
Yeah, stuck in my ways again
She said I pray for you
She said I love you, but I need to stay away from you Stuck in my ways againYeah, look Nothing ever stays the way it was Loved you til I had nothing left
I just needed time to find myself
Needed more but you gave me less
Even dealt with all this pain for you Promised you I'd stay the same for you Now I'm losing everything I love and you say you want me to change for you, wait I would never switch on myself just to be accepted by everybody else, look Everybody fake,
everybody two faced, everybody in it for themselves, uh Everything fake to me, everyone a snake to me, all they ever wanna do is take from me
They say everybody needs someone,
I just need everyone to stay the fuck away from me
They're telling me be careful who you love
These days everything numbAnd sometimes, the person you would take a bullet for is standing right behind the gun
Maybe I just wasn't worth it to you
Maybe I just wasn't perfect for you Truth is we could never work cause you just wanted me to be a different person for you, fuck
Yeah, stuck in my ways again
She said I pray for you
She said I love you, but I need to stay away from you, uhStuck in my ways again
Yeah, stuck in my ways again
She said I pray for you
She said I love you, but I need to stay away from you
Stuck in my ways againIt's been like four months of going in circles, I know
But I'm a bit scarred, tryna figure out which way to go
We could've had a fucking bless, yeah
But I was tripping on the past, yeah

Lately I've been feeling stuck, down in the dumps, might need to jump Miss me with that "where were you, when I needed you" look, baby I'd be goneIt's gon be a long time 'fore home
You know that zone six my zone
Looking at this shit from different sides
Try not to pick a side
Ain't no more switching sides
Made it a mission
I, know you wanna stay away
Considering the stakesI thought that you could take...
I thought that we would make It's crazy how it all pans out
Tryna carry all my plans out
Wanna get the last dance out
But she won't even stick her hand outYeah, stuck in my ways again
She said I pray for you
She said I love you, but I need to stay away from you, uh
Stuck in my ways again
Yeah, stuck in my ways again
She said I pray for you
She said I love you, but I need to stay away from you
Stuck in my ways again
