Voices (feat. Sasha Keable)

Disclosure

There are voices in my head
And my heart is heart is trying hard to drown them out
I keep hearing what they say
They can space me into what they're all aboutWell power slips away
And I'm weakening with every word they say
So I contemplate my faith
As I do, the whisper turns into a shout(Pre-Chorus)
You bring out the voices inside of me
Can't stop from a place that I can't reach
I would love to practice what I preach
You bring out the voices inside of me
I tried to resist but you caught me
I tried to dismiss what you taught me
I tried to resist but you caught me
I tried to dismiss what you taught meRisking everything I had
I was keen to find the worst that I could do
Throw this sanity away
Brought destruction to the people that I knowMy hurt became a cage
I became a puppet on the stage
And even though we're not okay
The feeling brings me blush all the same, all the same(Pre-Chorus)
You bring out the voices inside of me
Can't stop from a place that I can't reach
I would love to practice what I preach
You bring out the voices inside of me
I tried to resist but you caught me
I tried to dismiss what you taught me
I tried to resist but you caught me
I tried to dismiss what you taught me
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/