

Endless Night

Trivium

Is it a sin
To miss the hill
For you survive
The best of friends
And where is the time
I never got the answer They haven't told me if you're not good for
What doesn't kill you
Can't control you
Now it defines me
And it reminds me
That we'll never let me go If we share the pain
And maybe we won't have to bury memories away
And I try to change
But the dawn escapes again
I'm fighting another endless night When it gets dark
I cannot breathe
It's only the sound
Of grinding teeth Afraid of the silence
And it's purging my limbs Your empty words
Of being concerned
Of the motions
Will never return
'Cause this still defines me
And it reminds me
That we'll never let me go
If we share the pain
And maybe we won't have to bury memories away And I try to change
But the dawn escapes again
I'm fighting another endless night Is it a sin
To miss the hill
For you survive
The best of friends
And where is the time
I'm fighting another endless night And I try to change
But the dawn escapes again
I'm fighting another endless night When it gets dark
I cannot breathe
It's only the sound
Of grinding teeth Afraid of the silence
I'm fighting another endless night
