Sorry

6LACK

Nah, but, listen, I'm following my dreams, I'm chasing my, my, my, my dreams, uhm, accomplishing all my goals.
I'm doing what I'm supposed to do.
And that's, you know, niggas, they always gonna be thereReally hate saying sorry
Gotta be another way
I know you hurt regardless
Tryna take away the pain
I know I've done some foolish things before
I know that I've been swerving on this course
Shaking myself, cause I just can't ignore, oh, ohCan't find me somewhere right and when I'm wrong
Girl, I'm just tryna see if I belong
Mistakes feel like a fracture in my bones
Sitting here, patching myself up
Crying over what's left, cause
Without you I ain't shit, but no pressure
Guess I gotta learn my lessonWe over the same shit
Swinging for the fence, but somehow I can't hit
You wonder why I can't hear
Despite a couple keys, don't know shame, hey, yeah
I know I've said some foolish things before
I know that I've been swerving on this course
A lot of shit that you just can't ignore, oh, oh, ohCan't find me somewhere right and when I'm wrong
Girl, I'm just tryna see if I belong
Mistakes feel like a fracture in my bones
Do all this work only to fuck it up
But I'm not down for quitting all your love
It's twisted but I just can't get enough
Sitting here, patching myself up
Crying over what's left, 'cause
Without you I ain't shit, but no pressure
Guess I gotta learn my lessonSo I'm right when I'm wrong
Haven't I already shown
What it's like to love someone so much you treat their heart like it was your ownSitting here, patching myself up
Crying over what's left, cause
Without you I ain't shit, but no pressure
Guess I gotta learn my lessonI'm just tryna s-, oh
It feels like a fracture of bones, oh, oh
