Forgettable (feat. Olivia)

Project 46

To the kid in the corner
Trapped in the shadows of doubt.
Passing time till it's over
Just hoping one day you'll be found.
Tell me who threw your chance away?
Did they even know your name?
If you live in the echo
Your heart never beats as loud.You're not invisible.
You're not alone,
You worth more than they know.
But you've been running, running, running.
When you should have known.
You're not forgettable,
Forgettable,
Forgettable.
I've seen a fear of rejection inside your eyes,
Whisper of truth, lost in the quiet night.
I know it's more than you can bare
It may seem like no one cares.
When your world is the darkest
Remember the sun will rise.You're not invisible.
You're not alone,
You worth more than they know.
But you've been running, running, running.
When you should have known.
You're not forgettable,
Forgettable,
Forgettable.
You're not forgettable,
You're not replaceable,
But your perfect delay you.
You're not invisible,
You're not erasable, no.You're not alone,
You worth more than they know.
But you've been running, running, running.
But you've been running, running, running.
You're not forgettable,
Forgettable,
Forgettable.
You're not forgettable.
