Dollar Girl

Orchestral Manoeuvres In the Dark

When you know the dollar girl
Is coming home again
Then you know that destiny
Will never be your friendHer heart is in her pocket
And her head is in your hands
You thought it would be easy
But I guessed she changed your plansNow you know there's no release
From all the tears she cries
Slowly it seems obvious
She'll love you til she dies
Stay with me now
Til the end of the day
If you stay we can talk
I will hear what you say
If you leave me tonight
While my heart is on fire
Stay with me now
I will be your desireAnd when you go the dollar girl
Will justify your care
She burns you with her confidence
And prays that you won't dareNow you know there's no release
From all the tears she cries
Slowly it seems obvious
She'll love you til she dies
Stay with me now
Til the end of the day
If you stay, we can talk
I will hear what you say
If you leave me tonight
While my heart is on fire
Stay with me now
I will be your desireNow you know there's no release
From all the tears she cries
Slowly it seems obvious
She'll love you til she diesStay with me now
Til the end of the day
If you stay, we can talk
I will hear what you say
If you leave me tonight
While my heart is on fire
Stay with me now

I will be your desire
