Stranger (feat. Elliphant)

Peking Duk

Keep me calling my brain
We gon' be okay
It's summertime no sober time again
Burning out on the train
And get off in the rainWhen the sun shine with the sun we rise againWalking home on a silent street
I just met you and you're good company
So comfort me
In the silent street in the distance line
Like a lullaby song singing us to sleep
For us to keep
Oh when will I see you now
Stranger could you walk me home
Even if we drift somehow
No I, I'm never gonna sleep aloneNever gonna sleep aloneCalling out to the wolves
Can you pull us through
To the otherside of another world with you
Where the night is key and the rebels sing
Our battle cry we never die we willWalking home on a silent street
I just met you and you good company
So comfort me
In the silent street in the distance line
Like a lullaby song singing us to sleep
For us to keep
Oh when will I see you now
Stranger could you walk me home
Even if I drift somehow
No I, I'm never gonna sleep alone
Never gonna sleep alone
Never gonna sleep alone
I'm never gonna sleep aloneWhen will I see you now
Stranger could you walk me home
