Peace of Mind (feat. Avelino)

Jay Prince

Give a piece of mind right now
Yeah I been livin' in the dull right now
I'm just tryna see the light right now
So spread a little bit of love right now
Yeah, they don't wanna see another black man win
They don't wanna see another nigga from the ghetto really tryna get it
(Ah no)
And man I see they wanna own you, two times as many Don't say I never told you, still try to get in
Still try to get in, still learn lessons
Wanna kind of know my master would just throw you
We're tryna make it work but we still keep stressin'
My nigga yeah we still keep stressin'
I've only one girl right now
So you should probably keep with her right now
So tell me what's good, tell me what's good a-ya-ya
So tell me what's good, tell me what's good a-ya-ya
Yeah, yeahTell me what's good, tell me what's good
Really been a abidin', I don't wanna, tell me how to get it
You will always die anotha nigga
From the very jums that they wanna stun,
That they wanna bog dat nook
Is full of breah, fill it by the can, fill it by the boy right now
Pinnin it up on my cell phone right now
Can't trust nobody, trust nobody
I was down on my luck and I had nobody
But it's all good I ssailed through the bullshit, I know
Had to manoeuvre the useless and find my own flow
And I know what it takes to be great
Made mistakes on my own
I admit now I'm blown
But I still try to get in nigga
Still try to get in, still learn lessons
Wanna kind of know my master would just throw you
We're tryna make it work but we still keep stressin'
My nigga yeah we still keep stressin'
I've only one girl right now
So you should probably keep with her right now
So tell me what's good, tell me what's good a-ya-ya
So tell me what's good, tell me what's good a-ya-ya
YeahTell me what's good right now, eh
Get money like I should right now

I don't have to explain what's already understood right now
Used to get in the alley with my G. reminiscin' in the house
From dope to dope, to having the last laugh
I didn't crack when I had coke, honestly
It's tough to never shatter, never broke, probably
In the fast line i'm whole, honour me
But God never takes hells nor blows, promise me
If you break bread we'll toast
I wanna buy a house, I don't wanna sell out my home, no
I'm gonna call this gal from my coat
I'm in a strip club, I don't wanna get strip slashed by the cold
Fuck what I had in the moment
Living your dream takes no sleep, no sleepI've only one girl right now
So you should probably keep with her right now
So tell me what's good, tell me what's good a-ya-ya
So tell me what's good, tell me what's good a-ya-ya
Yeah
