

Here All Alone, Pt. 3

AJ Rafael

Why did it take so long for me to realize That you weren't there for me the way I was for you but those eyes
 They captured me more than twice Why didn't I see the signs
 You used to say that I was worth your time To think I fell for you the things you put me through I was blind but you Caught my eye by surprise
Maybe I should've thought twiceOh I'm not alone I'm over the fact that you're gone
 And I'll say these words
 But not just once You're overplayed
 Don't need your touch
 I'm not alone but you probably are What happened to I wouldn't miss it for the world
And all the things you said I wish I never read so much into those words
And Yes I'll admit I fell for it fake promises now I regret all that I said
To you and now I'm left but here I am again I'm sayin
 Oh just know that I'm not alone
 And oh, yes I wanted you to go And oh don't wanna hurt anymore
 So I'll say these words
 And not just twice your overplayed
 Don't need your touch
But enough about you cause that's all you areSo look at me, I ain't your star
 I'm not alone but you probably are
 oh just know that im not alone
 and ooh yes I wanted to go ooh don't wanna hurt any more so I'll say these words, but not just thrice Your're overplayed, don't need your touch but enough about u, cuz thats all u are so look at me, i ain't your star im not alone. but you probably areMaybe there's a motive to why all those tricks you played on me Sorry it sounds harsh but I'm speaking truthfully Maybe there's a reason why I always go through this routine.
 love me leave me hangin on a thin string.
 oh no I'm not alone, no I'm not alone but you proably are, you're proably there all alone
