

Kiss Me Fool

Fefe Dobson

Tell me who should I be to make you love me
Tell me what does it mean to be alone
Can't you see me standing staring out from a distance
Hear my cry if you'd only listen
Out of focus into me and you Kiss me fool, if you care
If your words have better meaning
Playing it cool is so unfair
Why this veil of secrecy
God, forbid
Your friends found out what we did
Why can't someone like you be with someone like me
Tell me who should I be to make you love me
Tell me what does it mean to be alone
Can't you see me standing staring out from the distance
Hear my cry if you'd only listen
Out of focus into me and you Touch me fool, if your allowed
I'll be dancing in the corner
It's so cruel to play it proud
Take your hands and cover me
I'm aware that all in love is fair
But that's no reason to make me feel this way Tell me who should I be to make you love me
Tell me what does it mean to be alone
Can't you see me standing staring out from the distance
Hear my cry if you'd only listen
Out of focus into me and you.
And it hurts me so bad to deny it, ooooooooooh
These feelings are out of control
Do you know what it's like to want something so bad
And then having to let it go
And it hurts me to know that this time in our lives
So soon will be in the past
And you spend it pretending your playing it cool
Never knowing
Never knowing
Never knowing what
What we should have had Tell me who should I be to make you love me
Tell me what does it mean to be alone
You've got me wondering if I'm good enough
Pretty enough
Giving enough
Special enough Tell me who should I be to make you love me
Who should I be

Who should I be
Ooooh
To make you love me
Who should I be
Who should I be
Ooooh
To make you love me
Who should I be
Who should I be
Ooooh
To make you love me
