The Sound of Truth

As I Lay Dying

YeahWe have all heard what we wanted to hear
Truth that sounds right to our earsWe have all heard what we wanted to hear
Truth that sounds right to our earsBut what wisdom is there within us
To live based on the feeling of our hearts?
How many times has instinct let us down
Never to be thought through
Never to be questionedNoSay what you really mean
When your ambition calls you
Call you
For what use is there in praying
If you will only hear what you want to hear?We have all heard what we wanted to hear
Truth that sounds right to our earsYeah
We speak of fighting to resist this world
But what about the battle within us? (Yeah)
If we have chosen to live against the grain
Then why are we all facing the same way?
There is no difference between us and them
If we all blindly seek truth from sentiments
We have all heard what we wanted to hear
Truth that sounds right to our ears
We have all heard what we wanted to hear
Truth that sounds right to our ears
We have all heard what we wanted to hear
Truth that sounds right to our ears
