Stay

Lena Katina

I'm still awake
I'm lonely and longing for you
You come and love me
Then you leave me feeling empty and blueYou are always running, always hiding, always playing a game
Coming back for more you disappear by the end of the dayI want you to stay
You never stay
Come on and stay
I wish you would stay
But you never stay
Don't keep me waiting
Heaven won't call
Anticipating
Come on heaven won't knowWhen I look to your eyes I feel guilty as hell
I know our love is forbidden but I still don't careThe fire in your touch on my skin makes my body shake
You're coming back for more you disappear more than I can takeI want you to stay
You never stay
Come on and stay
I wish you would stay
But you never stay
I want you to stay
You never stay
Come on and stay
I wish you would stay, stay, stay,STAY!
