Hold On Tight

Aloe Blacc

Where's your smile gone 'cause
It don't shine no more
There's a light on butYou don't open your door
When you're ready
You can tell me what's wrongI had trouble and
There's no hiding that
If you're struggling
Let me know where you're at
Life gets heavy
And that road can be long
When the rain comes
And the sky is falling down
In your darkest hour
When there's no one around
It won't be long
Keep your head strong
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight, hold onWhen you feel like crying
Go on let it out
Just remember
The sun is shining behind the clouds
It won't be long
'Til your pain's gone
Just hold on tight to me
Hold on tight, hold on
Sometimes a worry can
Get the best of us
And I understand
How you could lose your trust
Let me show you that
Here is where you belong
I can be your shoulder to cry on
You will find comfort in my arms
I can be your shelter on solid groundWhen the rain comes
And the sky is falling down
In your darkest hour
When there's no one around
It won't be long
Keep your head strong
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight, hold onWhen you feel like crying
Go on let it out

Just remember
The sun is shining behind the clouds
It won't be long
Hold on tight, hold onHold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight
Hold on tight, hold onWhen the rain comes
And the sky is falling down
In your darkest hour
It won't be long
Keep your head strong
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight, hold onWhen you feel like crying
Go on let it out
Just remember
The sun is shining behind the clouds
It won't be long
Hold on tight, hold onHold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight to me
Hold on tight
