

Shelter (feat. Roxanne Emery)

Dash Berlin

You are the sun in my sky
Even when the stars would die
You are gonna make me shine
You make me shine cause
I'm born for every young guy
For all my life
I will be by your side
And I'll be there when you fall, yeah
And there'll be no pain at all
And I'll be your shelter
Your shelter from the storm
Yeah always be your shelter
I'll be there if you fall
And if you walk a lonely road
Know that you're not alone yet
Cause I'll be your shelter
Your shelter from the storm
So when the rain is coming down
Feel you can't stand your ground
I won't let you drown
And I'll be there when you fall, yeah
And there'll be no pain at all
And I'll be your shelter
Your shelter from the storm
Yeah always be your shelter
I'll be there if you fall
And if you walk a lonely road
Know that you're not alone yet
Cause I'll be your shelter
Your shelter from the storm
Your shelter from the storm
Your shelter from the storm
