

Shoot from the Hip

A Change of Pace

Picture perfect
Turned to worthless
Bittersweet, the taste is like ash in my mouth
Love we had it
You're a bad habit
I'm ready to give you up
I give up Silly me for thinking honesty is something
Given free, I make the rules
And this is how it ends.
Heartbreak baby is half the fun
You bring the bullets, I'll bring the guns
Take ten steps now turn and draw
I shoot from the hip then watch you fall
Heartbreak baby is half the fun
You bring the bullets, I'll bring the guns
Take ten steps now turn and draw
I shoot from the hip then watch you fall Scenes of passion
Never lasted
Your mistakes are too much to put behind
I am tired
With no desire
To put together things that just fall apart Silly me for thinking honesty is something
Given free, I make the rules
And this is how it ends.
Heartbreak baby is half the fun
You bring the bullets, I'll bring the guns
Take ten steps now turn and draw
I shoot from the hip then watch you fall
Heartbreak baby is half the fun
You bring the bullets, I'll bring the guns
Take ten steps now turn and draw
I shoot from the hip then watch you fall Then watch you fall Silly me for thinking honesty is something
Given free, I make the rules
And this is how it ends. Heartbreak baby is half the fun
You bring the bullets, I'll bring the guns
Take ten steps now turn and draw
I shoot from the hip then watch you fall
Heartbreak baby is half the fun
You bring the bullets, I'll bring the guns
Take ten steps now turn and draw

I shoot from the hip then watch you fall
