You

Binocular

You, you're everything I ever wanted to
Be when you're here with me I just wanna lose
Me in your love that rises to the sun
And says everything I never could think ofIn silence, we rise and we fall
Here for today then were goneBut you, you'll always be my only real friend
I said, "You, I know you'll always be there till the end"
They may say holding onto something from the past
'Cause they know that nothing in this life will ever last
In silence we rise and we fall
Here for today then were gone
In the time that we take to look back
These days and these moments have passedI've been running down the mountain side alone
I've been stuck out in the rain and in the cold
I've been going down lonely streets
I've been climbing up the mountain'Cause you, you're everything I ever wanted to Be when you're here with me I just wanna loseIn silence we rise and we fall
Here for today then were gone
The time that we take to look back
These days and these moments have passedThen we're gone
Then we're gone
'Cause you're I ever wanted
'Cause you're I ever wanted
'Cause you're I ever wanted
'Cause you're I ever wanted
