Vixen (feat. Angela Hunte)

Gyptian & Angela Hunte

Eyes so green that even diamonds could shine so bright
I was lost in your darkness but then she stole the night
Ooo...
I only talk to her maybe once or twice
Skin so golden brown red lips with a vicious smile
She saidGyptian before you place your hands on me
I just don't let any man take over my body
She whispers softly in my ear
I said I hear you loud and clear
You got me begging you, begging you, begging you, begging you
That's just something I would never do,
I'm in agony, agony, agony over you,
There is just something about you.
How could someone you just met make you fall in love like that?
She's a vixen got me fiending for a touch tonight
Never ever been so honest,
Never ever been so blind
Never ever been so open
She got control but
I don't mindI bet her kisses taste like paradise
She warms my heart and it was cold as ice,
She owns my dreams and that aint right
Hit that shit like a mountain she rock a grown man to sleep
Hear what I say
Gyptian before you place your hands on me
I just don't let any man take over my body
She whispers softly in my ear,
I said I hear you loud and clear
You got me begging you, begging you, begging you, begging you
That's just something I would never do.
I'm in agony, agony, agony over you,
There is just something about you.How could someone you just met make you fall in love like that?
She's a vixen got me feeling for a touch tonight
Never ever been so honest...
Never ever been so blind
Never ever been so open
She get..... for timeI don't mind...
I don't mind...
I don't mind...Oooo
Ahhhh
She's vixen

I'm defending for a touchShe said
Oooo
AhhhShe's a vixen
I'm defending for a touch
