Without You (feat. Ladina Spence)

DJ Antoine, Mad Mark & FlameMakers

You have no fear
Like you ain't got one thing to lose
I'm holding back tears
My heart's broke, you tied the nooseAnd oooh
In another life
My heart might beat again
Oooh
But in this one I'll pretend,
That without you
I got strength to move on
All my faith isn't gone
Without you
I got a will and I'll find a way
I'm not afraid to face whatever comes
And my days are filled with only sun
Without youWithout you...I feel no pain
I'll never be the same again
Somehow you've changed
My love was more
Than you could take
And oooh
In another life
My heart might beat again
Oooh
But in this one I'll pretendThat without you
I got strength to move on
All my faith isn't gone
Without you
I got a will and I'll find a way
I'm not afraid to face whatever comes
And my days are filled with only sun
Without youWithout you...
