Don't Call Me (feat. Yuna)

TOKiMONSTA

Call me
Don't call me
Call me
Don't call meHey, I never thought this love could go so wrong and you know that I moved on
I never heard from you for so long
Now I'm glowing up, you're blowing up my phoneI know you're tryna see if I still care that I miss you Know you never thought that I could this cool
Know you didn't think that I could be this cruel
I don't need to be mean but I'm just gonna ignore youCall me
Ignore you
Don't call me
Don't call me no more, no more
Don't call me
Don't call me no more
Don't call me no more, no more
Don't call me
Don't call me no moreAnd I see you found a new love
And you show it, all your friends gotta know it
I've been there before so I know when you're just faking it
I can't believe I stayed with you, the mate that I've been taking inOh, you move so fast, just don't forget
I was there to build you up when everything was a mess
I was there to cater to you
I cared about nothing but you, but youDon't call me
Don't call me no more, no more
Don't call me
Don't call me no more
Don't call me no more, no more
Don't call me
Don't call me no moreFunny how when you see you're glowing up
Wanna try and make it up
Suddenly just showing up
Where were you when I was crying?
Left me on the floor just dying
Can't come to the phone, realign
Now you wanna be my friend
That I don't mind itDon't call me no more, no more
Don't call me
Don't call me no more
Don't call me no more, no more

Don't call me
Don't call me no moreCall me
Don't call me
Call me
Don't call me
