TOBE NWIGWE - MAKE IT HOME (FEAT. DAVID MICHAEL WYATT)Aye look I pray
you catch a wave
That doesn't subside
This for the nappy heads in heaven
With a nappy head Christ by they sideI pray you catch a wave
That doesn't subside
This for the nappy heads in heaven
With a nappy head Christ by they sideYeah may your streets be paved with gold
Yeah hope my whole hood make it home
Yeah may your streets be paved with gold
Yeah
Hope my whole hood make it home
Yeah
Cause the world can be toxic
Especially when your skin looked like
Chocolate
At one point they sold us for profit
But we made it out of the gauntlet we ChosenYeah oh my mama the southside still Holding
Yeah go for broke for the ones that are Broken
Yeah please don't make me no hashtag or SloganMy whole hood is golden
That's why I pray you catch a wave
That doesn't subside this for the nappy heads in heaven
With a nappy head Christ by they side
I pray you catch a wave
That doesn't subside
This for the nappy heads in heaven
With a nappy head Christ by they sideYeah may your streets be paved with gold
Yeah hope my whole hood make it home
Yeah may your streets be paved with gold
Yeah
Hope my whole hood make it home
YeahCause they riding with choppas
And might turn you taper to pasta
Don't hardly see daughters at alters
Probably cause there ain't no more
Fathers they stole themYeah
Put in cages by racists patrolling
Yeah the hood is a lane to the pens

Like we bowling
Yeah
Please don't make me no hashtag or slogan
Black people are golden
That's why
I pray you catch a waveThat doesn't subside just for the nappy
Heads in heaven
With a nappy head Christ by the side
I pray you catch a wave
That doesn't subside
This for the nappy heads in heaven
With a nappy head Christ by they side
YeahYeah
May your streets be paved with gold
Yeah
Hope my whole hood make it home
Yeah
May your streets be paved with gold
Yeah
Hope my whole hood make it homeI hope you make it home
I hope you make it home
