Where I'm Going?

Kottonmouth Kings

Life is dream
it's funny thing too sometimes
On the road of life it's full of surprises Twist and turns we look toward the sky for some guidance
The sun goes down and it rises Withstood the sands of time And we'll find new horizonsSometimes I lay awake at night and try to figure it out is my life going north is it heading south I'm walking on a fence between wrong and right trying to keep a level head try to keep my goals in sight it's hard as hell in this world today friends I've known for many years started acting strange things I cared about before seemed to just fade away now I'm left with these questions of when this will change
"When is the train gonna get back on track when am I even gonna care bout that why am I the one who's always dealt the bad cards took the easy the road so long and now my life's hard"Still I try to make it work out for the best and I know I've gotta clean up all this mess if I knew when I started where this all would end I think I'd prolly do it all over againI don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I went from having a little to having a lot
I came from the bottom
now I'm standin on top I don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I've seen some people cry cause loved one's die I've looked in people's eyes and told some lies (yeah)Skies are blue and the trees are grand Going to the place where life froze in between The beautiful hills mountains and streams
The Mans country with my women living free Stay on my path follow my road
Do all the right things to achieve my goals Perusing my dream in life I lead Become who I want when I want anytime I please

I no where I'm going
If I keep it on track
Just stay on my line only time will tell I pray to the one over looking my trailI don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I went from having a little to having a lot
I came from the bottom
now I'm standin on topI don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I've seen some people cry cause loved one's die
I've looked in people's eyes and told some lies (yeah)I've been criticized For speaking my mind
Been baptized in lies Given bad advice
Here's a word to the wise
Never compromise
Watch your back
As you watch your ends multiply Look a man in his eyes
And never ever say die
Keep your eye on the prize
And you'll stay on the rise
I'm a king world wide
And I'm going to stay on the ground
I've been behind the glass but I always rebound Outlet quick live life in the fast lane
Inbound Outbound my stride don't change Stay true to myself cause I created this game I got the whole world jumpin' like the house of pain (jump)I don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I went from having a little to having a lot
I came from the bottom
now I'm standin on topI don't know where I'm going
I've seen some people cry cause loved one's die
I've looked in people's eyes and told some lies (yeah)I don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I went from having a little to having a lot
I came from the bottom
now I'm standin on topI don't know where I'm going
I've seen some people cry cause loved one's die
I've looked in people's eyes and told some lies (yeah)
