Fractures (feat. Nevve)

Illenium

Burning everything I know
Desperate for change
Crashing down the ancient roads,
Past our yesterdayMaybe there is hunger in my blood
Screaming out loud for what I wantSee me running full speed at it
Shatter and collide
Call it post-traumatic
Now it's do or die
Coming after tiny fractures
Coming after tiny fractures
See me running full speed at itComing after tiny fractures
Call it post-traumatic
What comes after tiny fractures?Feeding frenzies in my brain
I'm hopeful everydayGotta get it while we are still young enough to break
We're finally not afraidMaybe there's hunger in my blood
Screaming out loud for what I wantSee me running full speed at it
Shatter and collide
Call ir post-traumatic
Now it's do or die
Coming after tiny fractures
Coming after tiny fractures
See me running full speed at itComing after tiny fractures
Call it post-traumatic
What comes after tiny fractures?
