

My Apocalypse

Arch Enemy

Sudden implosion of silenced emotions
Buried beneath a scarred heart for too long
Delusions of hope fading away
Dying like leaves on frozen soil My apocalypse is near
I can feel the end... coming near Neglecting existence repulse and repent
An endless journey into the morbid
Whispering voices distorting all senses
Buried beneath a scarred heart for too long My apocalypse is near
I can feel the end... coming near
Lead - Michael Amott
The bitter taste of a dying dream
Shine the light on our shadows and illusions
Lead - Christopher Amott
My Apocalypse is near
I can feel the end... coming near
My Apocalypse is near
I can feel the end... coming near
