Doesn't Matter

Gallant

Talking to the moon with the lights down
Half a dozen ovals in your mouth, your muse
Kurosawa bleeding through your headphones
Knuckles in my back till your nails turn blue
Bet you remember back when I was headstrong
Tugging on the ends of my invisible noose
Thought you'd be jumping ship, but I was dead wrong
You can sail on thin ice long as I can tooUh, if this love's an accident waiting to happen
Let's go out with a bang, with a bang
Uh, I'm up to go under
To drown with each other
Yeah, we both feel the same
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter, you run, I run
You jump, I jump, that's all we wantDoesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter, you run, I run
You jump, I jump, that's all we wantTold me two years ago I was selfish
But you're the one who put us in the mushroom cloud
Liquor bottle saying what I'm thinking
Dancing in a minefield, don't look downUh, if this love's an accident waiting to happen
Let's go out with a bang, with a bang
Uh, I'm up to go under
To drown with each other
Yeah, we both feel the same
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter, you run, I'll run
You jump, I jump, that's all we wantDoesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter, you run, I run
You jump, I jump, that's all we wantStay forever young, in this state of mind
Dying for your love, call it killing time
No matter what you do I'll be on your side
Stay forever young, in this state of mind
Dying for your love, call it killing time
No matter what you do I'll be on your sideDoesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter, you run, I run
You jump, I jump, that's all we wantDoesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us
Doesn't matter to us, doesn't matter to us

Doesn't matter, you run, I run
You jump, I jump, that's all we want
