More / Diamond Ring (feat. Ty Dolla $ign & 6LACK)

benny blanco

You were all I need but sometimes baby I need more
Need more, mmm, say
You were all I ever wanted but sometimes I just want more
More, moreI was thinking maybe we could try something new Hope we're the same shit I'm into
I really think you'd like it
I'm talking 2 on 1, yeah me and you on herLet me show you something that you've never seen
Make you do a couple things that you never would believe
But I know that you got like it
Gotta keep it real, you know what I'm tryna say girl
You were all I need but sometimes baby I need more
Need more, mmm, say
You were all I ever wanted but sometimes I just want more
More, moreOk I bounce in the club so the hoes call me Rocky Posted in the cut, and not looking for a blockhead
Yep in my Gucci, I break a bitch back
And I keep a big bank or I think they want 6LACKBefore I leave the house, get cozy head to toe
Invested in your life, but keep that on the low
Grinding on the pole and y'all wanna go
You know your future brighter than a diamond ring, god damn
I put you on different things, god damn
You gon make me break the bank, god damn
You know your future brighter than a diamond ring, god damn
I put you on different things, god damn
You gon make me break the bank, god damn
