The Greatest Story Never Told

Saigon

You know the feeling when your back is up against the wall
People say they love you but you ain't convinced at all
Tell them they're full of shit they tell you you're insecure
Calling you immature, does that make sense to ya?
You ever feel like it's you against the world?
Like everybody is scheming even your only girl
Your home boy seem to be counting your money
Tell him you ain't got it and he's looking at your fund
Feeling like I prolly need to even leave the game alone
And even be the cheat that bang the chrome and get his name onHow does this saigon story end how? Know what they're saying but now
They say I'm a killer, I feel I'm entitled as I can be
And don't let your... as... me, I can be no villain
Ya all can't bring me down, ya all can't bring me down
Ya all can't bring me down, I can be no villain, ya all can't bring me down
I'm too high but it's not from the drugs, it's not from the drinks
It's not from my night at the club, it's not from my... not when I cop from the dealer
I would tell you but if I'd tell you, then I gotta kill you
I've been around the low while looking kind of scared
It's... my Corvette is still wet behind the ears
Some niggers look hard, but I don't feel the dread behind this fear
I'm looking for fixing, they could be volunteers
And there's somebody jump out the window and try to stop me
I wait the niggers to shoot'em like I was a paparazzi
Man these... knock'em a Masserati
And jump off the back, turn your block into Nagasaki
I shouldn't have to always make an issue with the pistol
Just to prove the... that here tissue to the gristle
How does this saigon story end how? Know what they're saying but now
They say I'm a killer, I feel I'm entitled as I can be
And don't let your... as... me, I can be no villain
Ya all can't bring me down, ya all can't bring me down
Ya all can't bring me down, I can be no villain, ya all can't bring me down
I'm too high but it's not from the drugs, high on life, yo, I'm from above
Ya all can't bring me down, ya all can't bring me down
The in principle saigon, 1 2 3 go
They say I'm a killer, I feel I'm entitled as I can be
And don't let your... as... me, I can be no villain
Ya all can't bring me down, ya all can't bring me down
Ya all can't bring me down, I can be no villain, ya all can't bring me down.
