Let Me Fly So Long

Binocular

Oh yes, it's over now
We can go back home
Oh, I'm caught up in a cloud
Yes, I've waited for itThe sky has fallen to the earth
You can't imagine what it's like
The darkness is not in me anymoreOh yes, you said that you would
I believed you, I believed youSo let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Time was always on our side
Though we waited for it
I remembered how you cried
When you crashed into the wallYou couldn't take the chance
And I couldn't break your fall
The only time you criedOh yes, you said that you would
I believed you, I believed youSo let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so longLet me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Oh yes, you did what you said
I believed you, I believed youSo let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so longLet me fly so, so long
Let me fly so long
Let me fly so, so long
Let me fly so longLet me fly so long
Let me fly so long
(So long)
Let me fly so long
Let me fly so long
(So long)So, so, so long
So, so, so long
So, so, so long
