Botchla

Poison the Well

But I adore her
This will never happen
But I adore her
That will never happen
over my dead body of course I think about it burn my path if it does shape my body as I feel torn shape my body as I feel torn, broken and if it happens I'll burn and crawl deeper in my hole
darkness always says hello and your burning body will light my way burning body
light my way
